

Berlin Global Advisors opens new office in Brussels and hires EU-experts Seeger-Regling and Strohmeier

- Strategic & Government Affairs consultancy Berlin Global Advisors strengthens EU presence with its own office in Brussels as of 1 May 2021
- Sabine Seeger-Regling, former journalist and long-time EU correspondent, will lead the Brussels office
- Dr Rudolf Strohmeier, former Director General of the European Commission, joins in as Senior Advisor for Brussels/Luxembourg

Brussels, May 3, 2021 – The well-established strategic & government affairs consultancy Berlin Global Advisors (BGA) has opened a new office in Brussels to expand its presence at EU level. By expanding its public affairs offer, Berlin Global Advisors appreciates the increasing importance that EU policy decisions play for its clients. Seeger-Regling and Strohmeier will advise on EU policy matters across sectors with a particular focus on competition, financial markets and trade issues.

About Berlin Global Advisors

Berlin Global Advisors (BGA) is a strategic and government affairs advisory firm with a holistic consulting approach at the intersection of politics, business and capital markets. The team comprises nearly 50 partners and advisors with headquarters in Berlin and offices in Frankfurt, Düsseldorf, Hamburg, London, New York and now Brussels. To serve clients on a pan-European level Berlin Global Advisors has co-founded the European Principal Group (www.europeanprincipalgroup.com). BGA's services include public affairs, strategic communications and positioning, political risk, ESG consulting and M&A advisory.

Contact:

Jan Kallmorgen, CEO & Founder
Berlin Global Advisors GmbH
Kurfürstendamm 53
+49 170 200 3366
jan.kallmorgen@bga.global